Membership Cards

A list of discount shops and services available to ETC Members will be sent to you all later this month.

As this project has taken longer to get off the ground than initially envisaged, the discounts advertised will also be available throughout 2008.

Those who have not yet signed or picked up their cards, please contact Brandon (93 894 08 35 / 666 299 772)

DINNER FOR ONE

Monday 31st December at the MEET-INN (6pm-9pm)

Brandon will be directing a competition around the enacting of this amusing 15-minute sketch which has been an institution on German and Austrian television for decades.

Brandon wants to do the 15 minute sketch as a competition and is looking for 6 couples willing to take part as the major domo (around 60-70 years old) and the blind mistress of the house (around 70-80!). Make-up will assist if you are younger and interested!

For more info. contact Brandon (93 894 08 35).

“EL BARBIERE DE SITGES”

The brainstorming evening at Amy's went well in spite of the weather and, taking account of the comments at the reading, Amy will now amend the show and circulate it for more constructive additions.

The show is planned to go on in the early part of 2008.

For more info contact Amy on - amy.blaise@gmail.com"or 93 814 60 48

Past Events (October)

Monologues and Munchies

Great success with a packed house and talk of repeating it for those that missed a critically acclaimed event.

BBQ

Great day out for all the family.

We all had good fun and played games in beautiful sunshine.

We promise to improve on the food for next time, but it did not hamper out spirits.
